

STRUCTURES ON THE RECORD OF PROTECTED STRUCTURES

Photo	Description	Detailed Description	Location	NIAH Ref	RPS Ref	Map Ref – See Heritage Map
	Parochial House, (former)	Detached, three-bay, two-storey structure with hipped roof	Ardclone, Piltown	—	C525	1
	Saint Mary's Catholic Church	Detached six-bay single- and two-storey Gothic Revival Catholic church, built 1889-99.	Fiddown Road	12325024	C207	2
	Saint Paul's Church of Ireland	Detached three-bay double-height Hard Gothic Revival Church of Ireland church, built 1859-62.	Kildalton	12325023	C208	3
	Wilmount House	Detached three-bay two-storey over basement house, c.1825, with single-bay single-storey gabled projecting porch to centre ground floor, and two-bay two-storey return to south.	South of Main Street	12325012	C518	4
	Bridge	Two-arch rubble limestone road bridge over river, c.1850, possibly incorporating fabric of earlier crossing, pre-1840, on site. Sited spanning Pil River with grass banks to river.	Kildalton, north of St. Paul's Church	12325038	D157	5
	'The Anthony Inn' Public House	Detached nine-bay single- and two-storey Bianconi Inn, c.1825, on an L-shaped plan on a corner site originally accommodating hotel, museum and post office.	Main Street	12325008	C210	6
	House	Detached six-bay two-storey red brick house, c.1900, on a corner site with shopfront 'J.R. Anthony' to right ground floor. Now entirely in residential use.	Main Street	12325009	C526	7

STRUCTURES ON THE RECORD OF PROTECTED STRUCTURES

Photo	Description	Detailed Description	Location	NIAH Ref	RPS Ref	Map Ref – See Heritage Map
	Garda Barracks	Detached three-bay two-storey market house, c.1825, with round-headed openings to ground floor originally forming arcade. In use as courthouse, 1903. Renovated, post-1924, to accommodate use as Garda Síochána Station.	Main Street	12325010	C209	8
	'The Lodge'	Detached, three-bay, two-storey house with paired gabled dormers c.1825. Extended, c.1950. Former gate lodge to Willmount House. Now in private residential use.	Tybroughney Road	12325011	C527	9
	'The Villa', House	Attached three-bay two-storey end terrace house with dormer attic, c.1875, with two-storey gabled advanced end bay to right. Renovated, c.1975.	Main Street	12325013	C531	10
	House	Terraced three-bay two-storey house, c.1825.	Main Street	12325014	C529	11
	The Old Post Office, House	'The Old Post Office', Detached three-bay two-storey house, c.1900, with shopfront to ground floor, and three-bay two-storey side elevations. Now solely in residential use.	Main Street	12325016	C528	12
	House	Three-bay, two-storey house with tall gabled porch and garden folly.	Banagher Road	12325029	C534	13
	The Rectory	'The Rectory', symmetrical, three-bay, two-storey rectory with projecting centre bay, bay windows to side gables. Rendered with decorative brickwork.	Banagher - Hillcrest Avenue	12325027	C535	14

STRUCTURES ON THE RECORD OF PROTECTED STRUCTURES

Photo	Description	Detailed Description	Location	NIAH Ref	RPS Ref	Map Ref – See Heritage Map
	Memorial Tower	Freestanding single-bay three-stage memorial tower, begun post-1808, on an octagonal plan. Abandoned, pre-1814. Consolidated, c.1950, with top stage completed to accommodate additional use as water tower. Set on an island site at junction of three roads.	Junction of Tower Road and Main Street	12325028	C211	15
	Gate Lodge	Detached three-bay single-storey pedimented rustic lodge, c.1775, with pedimented prostyle tetrastyle Doric portico to front, and five-bay single-storey side elevations. Now disused and partly derelict.	Belline Estate, north of Piltown	12403909	C318	16
	Belline House	Detached five-bay three-storey over part-raised basement Classical-style country house, c.1775, on a T-shaped plan with three-bay full-height projecting bay to centre.	Belline Estate, north of Piltown	12403906	C318	17
	Circular Towers	Two free standing single-bay three-stage pavilion towers c.1775 on a circular plan.	Belline Estate, north of Piltown	12403906	D74	18
	Kildalton College	Bessborough House (Kildalton College). Attached nine-bay two-storey over raised basement Classical-style country house with dormer attic, built 1744-55. Burnt, 1923. Reconstructed, 1929, to accommodate use as convent. Converted to use as agricultural college, post-1944.	Kildalton College	12325001	C319	19

PROPOSED ADDITIONS TO THE RECORD OF PROTECTED STRUCTURES

The symbol * - denotes a structure within the attendant grounds of an existing Protected Structure, which it is recommended as a clarification of the existing Record of Protected Structures entry.

Photo	Description	Detailed Description	Location	NIAH Ref	RPS Ref	Map Ref – See Heritage Map
	Gate Lodge	Detached single-bay two-storey Classical-style gate lodge, c.1775, on an octagonal plan. Now disused. Originally intended as one of a pair flanking a central gateway (second in pair no longer extant), identified on the Ordnance Survey as "The Turret" but more familiar in the locality as "The Inkbottle".	Belline Estate, west of Piltown	12403820	C318*	A
	Building (Miscellaneous)	Detached three-bay three-storey building, c.1775, possibly originally mill. Renovated with roof remodelled. Now disused.	Belline Estate, north of Piltown	12403908	C318*	B
	Outbuilding	Detached seven-bay two-storey double-pile red brick outbuilding, c.1775. Renovated, c.1975, to accommodate residential use.	Belline Estate, north of Piltown	12403907	C318*	C
	House	Detached three-bay two-storey house, c.1825, on a symmetrical T-shaped plan on a corner site with two-bay single-storey recessed flanking wings, and two-bay two-storey central return to west. Extensively renovated, c.1975.	Belline Estate, north of Piltown	12403911	C318*	D
	Gates/ Railings/ Walls	Gateway, c.1775, comprising pair of limestone ashlar piers, wrought iron double gates, wrought iron flanking pedestrian gates. Set back from line of road at entrance to grounds of Belline House.	Belline Estate, north of Piltown	12403910	C318*	E
	Gates, railings & walls	Gateway, c.1750 to Kildalton College, comprising pair of sandstone ashlar piers on cruciform plans, wrought iron open work panels supporting decorative wrought iron double gates, limestone ashlar outer piers with cut-limestone capping supporting urn finials.	Kildalton College, opposite Belline Terrace	12403912	C319*	F

PROPOSED ADDITIONS TO THE RECORD OF PROTECTED STRUCTURES

The symbol * - denotes a structure within the attendant grounds of an existing Protected Structure, which it is recommended as an addition as a clarification of the existing listing to the Record of Protected Structures.

Photo	Description	Detailed Description	Location	NIAH Ref	RPS Ref	Map Ref – See Heritage Map
	Gate lodge	Detached three-bay single-storey Tudor-style gate lodge with dormer attic, c.1900, on a cruciform plan. Set back from road in grounds shared with Bessborough House (Kildalton College).	To the north of Kildalton College	12325002	C319*	G
	Outbuilding	Detached four-bay two-storey outbuilding, c.1750, on a T-shaped plan with three-bay two-storey central return. Set back from road in grounds shared with Bessborough House (Kildalton College).	Kildalton College	12325030	C319*	H
	Piltown School (Old)	Detached three-bay single-storey gable-fronted school, c.1825, with single-bay single-storey gabled projecting porch to centre. Subsequently in residential use, post-1913. Now disused.	Main Street	12325018	—	I
	Piltown National School (former)	Detached three-bay single-storey national school with half-attic, dated 1913, with single-bay single-storey gabled projecting lower porch to centre. Now in residential use.	Main Street	12325017	—	J
	House	End-of-terrace four-bay two-storey house, c.1825. Renovated, c.1925, with some openings to ground floor remodelled.	Main Street	12325015	—	K
	Well	Well, dated 1877, with rock-faced limestone ashlar surround having round-headed recess containing cut-stone date stone/plaque, and rock-faced limestone ashlar voussoirs incorporating limestone ashlar keystone. Now disused.	North of Main St., opposite junction with Tybroughney Road	12325033	—	L

PROPOSED ADDITIONS TO THE RECORD OF PROTECTED STRUCTURES

The symbol * - denotes a structure within the attendant grounds of an existing Protected Structure, which it is recommended as a clarification of the existing Record of Protected Structures entry.

Photo	Description	Detailed Description	Location	NIAH Ref	RPS Ref	Map Ref – See Heritage Map
	Bridge	Single-arch rubble stone road bridge over river, c.1800. Sited spanning tributary of Pill River with grass banks to river.	Main Street	12325032	—	M
	Water Pump	Freestanding cast-iron waterpump, c.1900, comprising banded cylindrical shaft with spout having foliate detailing, moulded necking having curvilinear 'cow tail' handle with finial, and fluted ogee-domed capping. Now disused.	Main Street, west of Anthony's Inn	12325031	—	N
	Gates, Railings & Walls	Gateway, c.1750, comprising pair of rusticated limestone ashlar piers, decorative iron double gates, and random rubble stone flanking boundary wall to perimeter of site. Road fronted at entrance to grounds of Bessborough House (Kildalton College).	East end of Main Street	12325022	C319*	O
	Bridge	Two-arch rubble stone road bridge over river, c.1750. Sited spanning Pil River with grass banks to river.	Creamery Road	12325019	—	P
	Piltown Corn Mill	Detached single-bay two-storey gable-fronted corn mill, c.1800. Extended, c.1875, comprising single-bay two-storey gable-fronted range with half-attic to east terminating in single-bay two-storey gabled end block to east. Part refenestrated, c.1975. Now in use as warehouse. Set in own grounds perpendicular to road overlooking Pill River.	Creamery Road	12325021	—	Q
	Industrial Building	Detached seven-bay double-height building with attic, c.1900, L-shaped plan with two-bay two-storey projecting block with attic, having chimney to corner comprising tapered shaft on a square plan. Extensively renovated, c.1975. Now disused.	Creamery Road	12325020	—	R

PROPOSED ADDITIONS TO THE RECORD OF PROTECTED STRUCTURES

The symbol * - denotes a structure within the attendant grounds of an existing Protected Structure, which it is recommended as a clarification of the existing Record of Protected Structures entry.

Photo	Description	Detailed Description	Location	NIAH Ref	RPS Ref	Map Ref – See Heritage Map
	Bell Tower/ Stand	Freestanding belfry, built 1798, on a square plan originally forming part of larger composition with remainder of church dismantled, post-1903. (ii) Graveyard to site with various cut-stone markers, post-1798-present. (iii) Gateway, post-1798, to north comprising pair of tooled limestone ashlar piers with cut-limestone stepped capping, and wrought iron double gates.	Fiddown Road, close to St. Mary's Church	12325025	—	S
	Gate Lodge	Detached three-bay single-storey gate lodge with dormer attic, c.1900. Now in private residential use. In grounds originally shared with Bessborough House (Kildalton College).	Fiddown Road	12325039	C319*	T
	House	Attached three-bay two-storey house, c.1825, probably originally terraced. Renovated, c.1900, with single-bay single-storey gabled advanced porch added to centre ground floor.	Main Street	12325034	—	U
	House	Terraced four-bay two-storey house, c.1825, with square-headed carriageway to right ground floor.	Main Street	12325035	—	V
	House	End-of-terrace three-bay single-storey house, c.1825.	Main Street	12325036	—	W
	House	End-of-terrace four-bay single-storey house, c.1825, with single-bay single-storey lean-to advanced entrance bay on an elliptical plan.	Main Street	12325037	—	X